

The Camp:

Key Leader, a program sponsored by Kiwanis International, is designed to inspire young people to achieve their personal best through leadership. Key Leader Camp is a three-day event where students learn communication and leadership skills through a series of group events, small break out groups and a ropes challenge course. The five key principles explored during the weekend will be Integrity, Respect, Growth, Community, and Excellence.

Who:

- Open to all students 14-18. The program is open to any student from any school.
- Open to Key Club and non Key Club members.

Where & When:

4 pm Friday, May 14 to 11:30 am Sunday, May 16, 2010 / Trinity Pines Camp, Cascade, ID

Cost:

- $200 for the weekend
- $175 for Key Club or Builder Club members for the weekend.
- $115 for student facilitators and chaperones
- Students will receive all materials, food and lodging upon arrival.

Sponsorship:

Any organization: Kiwanis, Rotary, Church, Parents, Chamber of Commerce or Businesses can sponsor students.

Registration:

Go to Key-Leader.org and select Register. (Yes, that is a hyphen- between Key and Leader)

Facilitator:

Is an experienced professional who has received specific training in the Key Leader program.

Chaperones:

Utah-Idaho District of Kiwanis will provide all adult chaperones. All chaperones will have gone through a background check. Kiwanis International, Key Leader division will also have representatives on site.

Contact:

Derek Schenck 208.412.4903 / derek@schenckrealestate.com
Register online / www.Key-Leader.org

"I don't know what your destiny will be but one thing I do know, the only ones among you who will be really happy are those who have sought and found how to serve." -Albert Schweitzer